Roses - Costa Brava

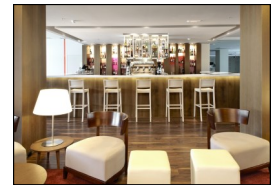

Known as the 'wild coast', the Costa Brava is a long-time favourite with British tourists. It earned its reputation from the beautiful rugged coastline, hidden coves and golden sandy beaches. Probably one of the best kept secrets of the Costa Brava is the resort of Roses with its large sandy beaches, at one time a peaceful fishing village, it has now developed into a thriving tourist resort, but at the same time retaining its original charm and tranquil atmosphere. The resort which is on the flat offers numerous pavement cafes and restaurants.

The Mediterraneo Park Hotel - Roses a short walk from what many regard as the best beach in the Costa Brava is the 4 star Mediterraneo Park Hotel. The hotel has an excellent reputation for unrivalled quality offering facilities including large outdoor pool area, children's pool, gym, games room and bar with a dance floor where there is entertainment most evenings. The spacious comfortable restaurant serves superb self service meals with food to suit everyone. There is a lift to all the air conditioned bedrooms which are tastefully decorated with en-suite facilities, satellite TV and all have a balcony.
